

After The Rage
From "Starsky vs Hutch" by Brit

After the rage is the heartache
After the rage comes the fear
After the rage flood the memories
As I drown in my unanswered tears

After the rage taunt the questions
After the rage trust is lost
After the rage darkness shadows
As I embrace my heart's bitter frost

After the rage is the grieving
After the rage, reckless prayers
After the rage hope is fleeting
As I desperately try not to care
