

I Can't Remember A Time... by Brit

I can't remember a time... when it wasn't me and you when it wasn't 'us against the world' only courage to see us through

I can't remember a time... when you weren't here by my side when you didn't pick up my shattered soul and hold me when I cried

I can't remember a time... when your smile didn't bring a light when your gentle gaze didn't break through and give me back clear sight

I can't remember a time... when you weren't half of my whole when steel forged bond of brotherhood didn't infuse my soul

I can't remember a time... when I didn't call you friend when I didn't know you would stand by me until our story's end
