

I'm Still Here
by Brit

I'm still here
so there's still hope,
slim though it is.

I'm still here
so I won't give up,
won't give in.

I'm still here
and I can't lose you
or I'll lose us...lose me.

I'm still here
and I'll find him, I swear or die trying.

I'm still here
and that means
you're still here, too.

*I'm still here. I'm still alive. They haven't got me yet.
And until then—
there damn well better be something I can do...*
