

Legacy

by Brit

If the legacy I leave behind
When all is said and done
Is that I was a good man
I was my father's son

If the legacy I leave behind
When all the pain is past
Is that honor, valor, duty
Are the shadows my life cast

If I consider these my legacy
It won't matter in the end
Except that I loved you well
And that you called me friend
