

Now and Forever
By Brit

Now and Forever, convicted
A madness demanding us “gone” Revenge has forever condemned us death haunts by his cadenced song

Now and Forever, you faced it your brave heart took its stand Protected me, sacrificed yourself life sifted like hourglass sand

Now and Forever, my vengeance life hangs by hope’s fragile thread Fueled and spurned by my bitter justice, by bond and brotherhood led

Now and Forever, triumphant over death, over rage, over greed Now and Forever, together
Now and Forever, me and thee
