

So Silently, He Cries
Starsky's Lady
by Brit

Shadow from the streets
He protects himself
Never show fear, never show pain
Don't let them see that they've hurt you
So silently, he cries

Torn from family, sent away
Can't allow the others to hear you
They're just in the next room
Don't disappoint
So silently, he cries

Sent to war to protect and serve
Only the strong survive
Never show your weakness
They kill their own wounded
So silently, he cries

Today love was ripped away
The pain is like fire
But he knows no other way,
Even though inside he's shattered
So silently, he cries
