

Somewhere Along the Road
by Brit

*Somewhere along the path
I lost a part of me little pieces of my soul that no one else could see*

Somewhere along the way my innocence was lost shredded trust and shattered heart naiveté's debt and cost

*Somewhere along the road
I was taken from my home swept away like a storm-tossed sea washed to the shore alone*

*But then somewhere along the journey
I found a friend in you You took me by surprise by a bond I never knew*

*Somewhere along the road
I found part of my soul and somewhere along the road your love made me whole*
